

KENDO COST SHEET

Dues for the Quarter (Quarterly Payment):

UWKC Membership: $15

Benefits/Reasons:

- Pays club expenses, donations, equipment, and fun extras.

Dues for the Year (Annual Payment):

PNKF/AUSKF Membership (Optional): $90

Benefits/Reasons:

- PNKF Membership: Required for eligibility in tournaments; promotional exams; open door policy; guests; support the federation that supplies us with an advisor.
- AUSKF Membership: Insurance for the club to hold tournaments and special practices; participation in national events (tournaments, exams, seminars and camps); guests.

Equipment (Purchased through UWKC):

Equipment	Cost	Details
Bokken	$25	One-Time Purchase
Shinai Bag	$10	One-Time Purchase
Shinai	$25	Occasional Purchase (2-3 per yr.)
Uniform	$70	One-Time Purchase
Armor Rental	FREE	It's free, what else is there to say?
Nafuda	$20	One-Time Purchase

Entry Fee for Tournaments:

$15 - $35 (Varies)

Approximate Timeline of Purchases for New Members:

Item	Purchase Period
Bokken	Within first two weeks of first quarter in UWKC
Shinai Bag	Within first two weeks of first quarter in UWKC
Shinai	Halfway through first quarter (fourth or fifth week)
Uniform	Near end of first quarter (eighth or ninth week)
Armor Rental	*Halfway through second quarter (third or fourth week)
Nafuda	*Near end of second quarter (seventh or eighth week)

*Heavily varies: depends on attendance of practices

Important Points:

- Everything will not be purchased at once upon joining (though steep at first, all equipment are one-time purchases except shinai)
- Not all things listed above will apply to everyone.
- Compared to other martial arts, kendo is one of the cheapest.
- Compared to other clubs in the area, UWKC is the cheapest (Ex: Bellevue pays nearly $65 per quarter for dues and $36 per quarter for armor rental)
- Please come talk to one of the officers if kendo becomes a financial burden.
We want you to enjoy kendo without the financial stress of a college student!